Choose a gift... improve a life

Twenty-four years ago

in south western Uganda, Dorothy Nzirambi started to look after a baby whose mother had died at Kagando Hospital. Gradually more and more babies came her way and she realised that it was God's call on her life to look after abandoned babies and children.

She has been joined by her sister Milly and together they have established the Nzirambi Orphans Talent Development Centre which is now a registered NGO in Uganda. A charity NOTDEC UK has been set up to support their work.

They now have 67 children in their care, all of whom are sponsored by people in the UK. The present buildings are inadequate and so land was purchased and construction work began in January 2009. Four accomodation bungalows and a nursery block have been built and some of the children will be moving in shortly. Additional bungalows are needed to house the rest of the children along with a chapel, staff accomodation and workshops where the children can be taught different skills they will need in adult life. The children will also be taught how to grow crops and look after farm animals.

This is an enormous task and NOTDEC needs your financial support through this gift catalogue. Please join us in changing children's lives.

We hope you'll find something on the following pages that will make an inspiring gift for your friends and family. We're sure they'll agree that this is one thought that really does count.

How it works

NOTDEC has identified the gifts that will improve the basic quality of life for the children. You simply choose a gift for a relative or friend and we'll send you one of our cards for you to send to them, telling them all about their gift. NOTDEC UK delivers your gift where it makes an enormous improvement in the lives of the children.

From time to time we will update our website showing how your gifts have improved the lives of children. As NOTDEC's needs change we will revise this catalogue and include future editions on our website. If a particular item is over-subscribed, we won't overwhelm NOTDEC with more than they need, we will use the funds to purchase another item.
